

FIELD CONSTRUCTION FOR NEW AND EXISTING INSTALLATIONS

TEiC

a Babcock Power Inc. company

OVERVIEW

TEiC Construction Services, Inc. (TEiC), a Babcock Power Inc.® company, has been providing open shop direct-hire construction services for new and existing plants for over 20 years. TEiC provides on-site construction services for the installation, alteration, repair, or maintenance of any OEM's boiler and boiler related equipment, including but not limited to pressure parts, firing systems, air heaters, fans, feedwater heaters, condensers, piping, and ductwork.

PROVEN SAFETY RECORD

TEiC has a proven track record of safety, on-time completion, and customer satisfaction. With our high standards of quality and safety, you can count on TEiC to meet all your requirements of new or existing installations.

Erecting Scrubber (FGD)

CAPABILITIES/BENEFITS

- Experienced with a wide variety of clientele in many different industries, including power generation, petrochemical, chemical, steel, pulp and paper, refuse, and industrial processing all from one experienced source
- Established integrated management processes applied to all projects, from labor-only to full turn-key
- In-place proven procedures ensure stringent project control of all aspects of each and every project, regardless of its size
- Most work is self-performed with an established network of quality organizations available for subcontracting when necessary, to meet project specifications
- Only one contract is required which can incorporate many different tasks and disciplines and ensure coordination of all facets of the project